DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 1-4 and 6-9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Kurpieski in view of Yoshida, as set forth in the previous office action.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed March 24, 2005 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. Applicant argues that the prior art doesn't disclose a body member tapering outwardly to side edges to provide a smoother junction with the walls of a structure. However, Kurpieski was used to set forth the environment of a massaging device that is adapted to be attached to a wall. Yoshida was used as a modifier to provide a massager having tapered walls that allow the massager to be attached to the walls of a structure. As for the tapered walls providing a smoother junction, this doesn't provide any novelty or structural limitations that are patentable over the prior art. Applicant argues that Yoshida teaches away from a smoother junction. However, as set forth above a smoother junction doesn't provide any novelty or structural limitations that a broader interpretation of Yoshida does provide.

Conclusion

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
